

Blank Stares

BAND STORY

"Blank Stares is a straight ahead, in your face, rock and roll band. No pivotal moments exist in the life of Blank Stares. The band was born, exists, and is driven by the incessant need to rock and roll. If ears are present to experience this rock and roll then they must be ready to be pushed to their limit. Ear drum skins are broken everyday, easier than drum kit skins. They consist of Matt Sullivan (Vocals), Andrew Comstock (Guitars), Thomas Hill (Bass), Jonah Snyder (Guitars), and Conor Dempsey (Drums). Calling to mind a time when rock and roll ruled the airwaves and honestly reflected the human condition, their melodic, intricate sound is nothing short of stellar. The energy in a Blank Stares live show is changing lives all around Halifax and could soon be coming to your town. For booking contact Samantha Lee-
