BAND STORY

"I reviewed the package you sent to The Bluebird Cafe for Chris Gill and was very impressed by the quality of his music. I review a LOT of CD's from people who want to play at The Bluebird, but hardly any this good. Thanks for making my job truly fun for a while. He would be an excellent addition to the line-up of our Sunday Writer's Night" Barbara Cloyd. Nashville TN Mar 13th, 2003. "I have reviewed your CD, and I must say it sounds as good as anything I've heard out there today. The songs are good and you're a solid country artist. I hope you have much success" John Gracie. Mar 3rd, 2003. "Norway calling....Please give Chris my sincere congratulations. As I listen to this CD more, I realize what a beautiful CD it is very impressive" Alex Cullum. DJ Boots n Saddles, Radio Hallingdale, Nesbyen, Norway. Feb 13th, 2003. "You can be proud of Chris Gill's talent! I can let you know that all the songs will be played on my show. I have appreciated the diversity of the tempo's, Chris's smooth vocal, quality of the production and high class accompaniment. An excellent Album and great design on the cover sleeve" Jacques Dufour. DJ Lyon premiere 90.2 FM, Lyon, France. Feb 17th, 2003. "For a debut album, this CD has class! Chris has a unique voice, a voice of a future major country star...lovely voice! Chris's songwriting talent speaks for itself..there are so many good songs here,at least six singles and the production was impressive. " Leslie King. ASCAP songwriter & Composer, Middlesex. England. March 10th, 2003. "I'm Shirley Scobie, DJ for Cruisin' Country, Radio Southland 96.4 FM New Zealand. I'm impressed with Chris's voice and have been playing tracks from this have been playing tracks from the CD on a regular basis and will continue to do so. I hope he has a long and successful career ahead of him. Kind regards from the summer sunshine of New Zealand. " Shirley Scobie, Radio Southland, NZ. Jan 19th , 2003 "Just a quick note to congratulate you on a song VERY well done.....I just love the lyrics of 'Tell Me How' I have been managing music stores for about 14 years now and I can't remember ever having to do a search like this before to find an artist, let alone writing an e-mail; but credit is due here. Your song has been playing a lot on our country radio station, CKHJ, and I have had customers in looking for the song....now I have found you I will pass on the info. " Nicki@Musicworld, Fredricton NB. Jan 14th, 2003 "I would like to tell you that SPMG Canada has come across a great press kit sent to me by a radio station in our area. Chris Gill, WOW, he's great. SPMG would like if we could to get permission to add Chris to our web site for promo purposes. SPMG is booking many festivals and county fairs in Ontario and would love the chance to book Chris into them." Robert Moody, President of SPMG Canada. Feb 1st, 2003 "It sounds great! The tunes are strong and the production is top notch. The total package is very professional. Congratulations. " Jamie Robinson. Halifax. Nov 12th, 2002 "I heard your new CD and I must congratulate you on a job well done!!! I love country music and your project is keeping the torch burning for all country fans!! Your artwork is top notch!!!!!! " Louisa Manuel. Halifax. Jan 4th, 2003 "Hi! I love your CD. I play it often! Congratulations on your interview with Duane Lowe! Onwards and upwards! " Jeanie Sears. Celtic Colors. Jan 31st, 2003 "Grade 'A' hundred proof Canadian country." as quoted by Cathy von Kintzel of the Truro Daily News doing a CD review in the paper Sat Nov 16th 2002 "The CD sounds great and Chris has a

CD sounds great and Chris has a wonderful look!... I am proud to add his CD to my collection." Rita MacNeil "A real country album that reflects Chris' s passion for traditional music,.... Congratulations on this fine new album." as quoted by Paul Kennedy of Kennedy Artist Promotions, June 12th 2002 "Too good to be true! I can see a touch of Alan Jackson & Hank Snr in your voice and style, but you sound different. You will go down in history as the greatest country singer to ever come out of Nfld & Labrador and that' s saying a mouthful, but I am a straight shooter and give credit where credit is due. The sky' s the limit for you! as quoted by Michael T. Wall Oct 10th 2002 "I receive quite a few CDs in the mail, but never have I been so impressed with every sound as I was with Chris' s original material. I really and truly enjoyed every cut and before I even put the CD on the player I knew it had to be a 'keeper' ." as quoted by Jan Patterson-Levi, Keepin' It Kountry Music Services Calgary Oct 31st 2002 "What a great job you did... it looks very good and it sounds even better. I hope Canadian radio will be ready to play any singles you release. " as quoted by Debbie Drummond of TRAX 18th Oct 2002 "I am completely astounded with your project! You singing of country music is the way country music should be and always will be. Your writings are equal to, if not better than, Nashville & Canadian writers. What a beautiful production!" as quoted by John Gavin, Atlantic Seabreeze magazine Nov 14th 2002 "Chris is making a giant leap into country music in Canada and abroad. His traditional country singing is absolutely up there with all the Nashville country singers and perhaps better. Country music fans are in for a treat with this well-produced album. It is not too often a singer/songwriter comes along with such a force." an excerpt from the CD review from Atlantic Seabreeze Nov 14th 2002 "It should be an honour to be if I could give

"I really like Chris Gill' s music! I have selected tracks 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 to be on the air from mid-November." Mike Pennard, DJ@ISA Radio, France
"Excellent album! Chris has a fine new album and we have added it to our daily playlist which is carried on the syndicated network to 78 stations across the USA." Shane Wilder, programme Director, Trans American Broadcasting Corp. Nov 5th 2002
"Tell me how by Corner Brook Native, Chris Gill, is a real piece of work! It' s as good a package as I have ever seen at any level of CD marketing.
His thoughtfulness and honesty are the benchmarks of the 14 original cuts and Chris' s performance stands out. The songs are the essence of good country music.... Straight forward and honest." Lloyd Bartlett, Regional Director Western Nfld MIA as quoted in the Nov. 2002 issue of
