

Iron Giant

BAND STORY

"A crushing, relentless, bulldozer of a band. The intensity of their live show is as legendary as their off-stage insanity, and, unlike most, you should believe the bullshit. Returning in the spring of '08 with their second recording effort, the Giant is out to prove a point. With down tuned fury and blue collar frustration, they plan to show you that they fight, and bleed, for what they believe in. Few can match their blood and piss conviction while doing so. IRON GIANT's Sabbath-meets-Motorhead monstrosity is the heaviest of the "Rock" with enough ball-rumbling groove to get the whole room goin'. This is NO CLASS, HEAVY A$$, WHITE TRASH, ROCK-N-ROLL! In times of cookie cutter rock, and here today/gone today stars, IRON GIANT isn't a breath of fresh air....It's a booze soaked fist in the face! Tried, tested, and all too true, this is the good sh!t that'll never get old. IRON GIANT has set their sights on '08 (hopefully!) as "The Year of the Giant " ... now you have been warned. IRON GIANT IS A FUCKIN' MACHINE!"
