BAND STORY

"whats up? my names kevin barr, i'm from sarnia, ON. i've been playing for about 10 years and writing for about 8 years. it wasn't until i took 'independent music production' in toronto in 06/07 that my songwriting really took off. after learning the basics of pro tools, i was able to expand my sound quite a bit in the mixing process. recently i moved back from toronto to sarnia, and my music has become more of a recording thing, i don't perform much, but i still manage to pull off 2 or 3 new recordings each month. hope you dig the tunes, keep checkin back for newbies!"
