

Lisa Birt

BAND STORY

"Inspired by Blues, Country Rock, Gospel, you name it, Lisa has been able to finally etch out her niche in the music industry. "I have found out who I am through Songwriting." Growing up in Prince Edward Island paved the way for Lisa with so many musical inspirations coming from this small but mighty Island of white sandy beaches and the greatest moonshine on the earth... Did I just mention Moonshine???? Stay tuned for Lisa's new Single, "Wildflowers". It has been described as the next Maritime Music Hit, up there with the likes of Stan Rogers. WOW! Plus be on the edge of your seat for the next, sure to be hit, "Texas Hold'em." Remember "It's All Good!!!" Lisa presently hosts the monthly "Halifax Regional Songwriters Group" which is directly affiliated with Songwriters Association of Canada. (SAC)

Lisa Birt -Songwriter Bio After moving from PEI to Halifax in 1999, Lisa was introduced to a small songwriters group called, " Songwriters Association of Nova Scotia (SANS). She acted as Showcase Coordinator on the Board of Directors for this organization for 3 years.

Responsibilities included recruiting talent to perform in the Sunday Showcases at Halifax's Split Crow Pub. This small group started it all for Lisa. While SANS membership faded, in the years to follow, Lisa kept the core group of about 7 committed songwriters together by organizing acoustic round table gatherings at local Halifax Coffee houses. After receiving excellent feedback on receiving excellent feedback on material written, it was time to take the next step & form the Halifax Regional Songwriter' s Group. This group is in direct relation with Songwriters Assoc. of Canada (SAC) www.songwriters.ca. Since inception in 2006 the small group of 7 has turned into 20+ each month. Lessons are taught from John Capek' s book, " How to Write a Hit without really Trying", stories are shared, advice given & taken, networking possibilities, and what matters most, sharing our songs. Being involved with an organization of this size opens a wealth of opportunities for the songwriter. Please visit the site above for more info. Lisa is dedicated to mastering the gift of songwriting. She has taken advantage of every opportunity in last 10 years to improve her craft; including attending seminars/ Songposiums with hosts like the amazing Dan Hill, Barney Bentall, Rick Emmett, Choclair, July Black, Haydain Neale, Jeremy Fisher, to name a few. In Nov 2007 Lisa was fortunate to receive some writing tips from the great Christopher Ward, who wrote the Hit, " Black Velvet." Local well known songwriter, Alastair MacDonald, was impressed with Lisa' s writing skills at a Songwriters Workshop in Oct 07 at the Heritage Farm in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Lisa is presently working on a full length album and a songwriter' s demo project. If you have a question, need help with a line, word, hook or just looking for another ear for your song, Lisa is there. Please contact her with questions at, Ph: 902-802-8148

LATEST NEWS

I like to co-write.

I have written, blue grass, rock, blues.

country, honky tonk, ballads, hip hop & pop.
If any one would like to collaberate on new songs, or if you have some old songs that you can't quite finish, let me know.

it is a privilege , challenge and most of all a learning experience to co-write. You must let go of you inhabitions, and not worry about being silly.

I host the Halifax Regional Songwriters Group & The Bridgewater Regional Songwriters Group. These are both direct affiliations with SAC, Songwriters of Canda. HRSG meets on the second Monday of each Month at the Lions Head Tavern in Halifax on the corner of Robie & Young Street. The bridgewater group meet at Boston Pizza on the last Monday of each month. Both meeting start at 7:00pm. All levels of songwriters welcome. It is a blast. There are so many talented writers out there. It is so exciting to share in the journey of creation.

Right now I am working on a song called Memory Lane, I believe it is a country swing, moderate slow tempo, like a waltz. I am looking for someone to play instrument(s), as I am not all that good on guitar. Need help with some lyrics & chording. Let me know,
Thanks, Lisa
