

Matt Minglewood

BAND STORY

"Hailing from Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, blues, folk, rock, country and Celtic are all musical threads that weave their way through the songs of Canadian blues legend Matt Minglewood. For more than four decades Matt has unpretentiously walked onstage and delivered one riveting performance after another. He has tapped into several styles of music and created a sound that has focus and a signature that is truly his own. Thirty five years plus of touring, recording and surviving in the music business ensures that his songs portray stories filled with the humor and earthy reality of life on the road. Minglewood' s performances not only showcase great music but also that wonderful heartfelt " down to earth bearer of good will and good times" hospitality for which the Maritimes is justly famous. "
