

Myra LeBlanc

BAND STORY

"Myra LeBlanc has been singing since the age of 6 or 7 (that she actually started getting paid, when family and friends would give money for a song. She has since evolved into a dynamite singer, and great entertainer. Myra has been part of several bands. The first band was a country rock band, called "RODEO" then came the band "WIRED" which bordered more on rock than country, and left her unsatisfied. She then created the group "HighRoad" which is a country rock band that has been getting all kinds of attention, from the local scene as well as out of the country. Myra has since evolved into an awesome country singer. She has been involved in several recording projects and the release of her new CD "So The Story Goes" which she released in Sept 06. Myra's song He's not Mr. Right is being played in New Zealand, as well as making it to # 25 on the European top 100 charts. "
