

Rik Reese & Neon Highway

BAND STORY

" East Coast Country/Rockers, Rik Reese & Neon Highway, 'kick the front door down' with their style of UNTAMED COUNTRY'. Since the recent release of the debut album entitled, Mama Raised a Good Boy, Reese and his band have opened for the likes of legendary Kentucky Headhunters, Blue Rodeo, Julian Austin, Matt Minglewood and are scheduled for shows with George Canyon, Chris Cummings, & The Divorcees to name a few. Having returned from a pair of successful showcase performances at the East Coast Music Awards, the band has recently released their first single and title track, Mama Raised a Good Boy to Canadian country radio on April 2009. To date, the single is receiving air play in Canada, Australia, Switzerland, Netherlands, Scotland and is charting in Japan! The album has received an overwhelming number of favorable reviews and was selected on the list of Top 12 Canadian Country albums for 2008 by Country Music News. This is one electric country act not to miss! "This Top 12 Canadian Country album should put the singer/songwriter in the National Spotlight" Larry Delaney, Country Music News "
