BAND STORY

"Since 1991 Ontario born Ronnie LeBlanc has been shouting his songs from the stage under the name, "An Acoustic Sin"... Ronnie is both known for his insane stage performance & his eclectic style of unique song writing. Some fans even say that it is freaky, almost mesmerizing! Others say that he leaves you in a trance and keeps you coming back to the edge of your seat to see what happens next. This diverse songwriter has no boundaries and writes songs from every genre, rock, blues, acoustic, folk, jazz, country, metal & Spanish rhythms. The songs are accompanied by worldly concerns and up front honesty for the world as he sees it to be, delivered to the ear via his unique style of lyrics & powerful singing voice backed by a sometimes soft to or overwhelmingly haunting song, story or tale... His influences range from Pink Floyd to Metallica, Johnny Cash to AC/DC, Mozart to Slayer, Simon & Garfunkel to Led Zeppelin, and BB King to The Red Hot Chilli Peppers. This ECMA winning songwriter has performed live on many national television programs such as "The Mike Bullard Show", "ECMA Awards" "Much Music" & "Music Plus". Since 1991 Ronnie LeBlanc has shared the stage with big acts such as CCR, April wine, The Tea Party, Kim Stockwood, Natalie McMasters, Lenny Gallant, Alana Miles and played live on the same set as Paul Stanley of KISS on the "Mike Bullard Show" in Toronto. This Canadian Recording Artist will simply amaze you with his unique writing. He is a story, a path, a journey, with the energy of a nuclear bomb! In fact, he is the bomb!"
