

Stephanie Mainville

BAND STORY

"ECMA Nominee and multi-award winner Stephanie Mainville has appeared in official showcases at the Junos, the Canadian Country Music Awards, Canadian Music Week, and the ECMAs in 2005 (Cape Breton), 2006 (Charlottetown) and 2008 (Fredericton). Stephanie's latest single "Wait" is the national 1st Runner Up in the 2009 Canadian Radio Star songwriting competition. "The competition this year was fierce...but this song kept coming up to the top of our list. It's a great song from a great songwriter!" - Gary Stackhouse C98.9 Big John FM Stephanie is preparing to release her second album this year. The project began with a week of 'live-off-the-floor' sessions recorded in Toronto's legendary Canterbury Studios. Under the direction of renowned multi-instrumentalist Kevin Fox, a talented group of musicians gathered to lay the foundation of a great album. With Kevin serving as producer, he and Stephanie are crafting ten beautiful new songs to create a reflective acoustic pop album. Kevin is well known in the Canadian music scene as an exceptional cellist and vocalist. He has worked as a musical director at the 2006 Juno Awards in Halifax and for the band Shaye. Kevin has recorded and/or performed with Celine Dion, Tom Cochrane, Feist, Alanis Morissette, Chantal Kreviazuk, Raine Maida, Gordie Sampson, Melanie Doane, Jully Black and many others.

Stephanie's debut album released in 2004 introduced her abilities as a multi-instrumentalist, singer, composer/arranger, performer and songwriter. A project that started out as a demo, while remaining a low-budget recording, generated interest and support from established industry professionals and world-class studio musicians and performers. The result was an album that received a total of 8 award nominations and won 3 awards. Nominations include:

- 2006 ECMA Gospel Recording of the Year
- 2007 Shai Awards Folk Album of the Year
- 2005 Shai Awards Inspirational Album of the Year
- 2005 GMA Canada Covenant Award Instrumental Song of the Year
- 2006 Mercy Award for Song & Creative Arts
- 2005 Mercy Awards Instrumentalist of the Year "
