

Suffer The System

BAND STORY

"Suffer The System says it all. Every single day and every single moment, every single person on Earth suffers from the system in some way. From gas prices to parking meters...from the government to car insurance...we all suffer from the system at some point every single day of our lives. Suffer The System formed in October of 2007. Suffer The System is..Trevor Walsh - Vocals, Jonathan Oakley - Guitar/vocals, Kensen Jardine - Bass, and Scott Lahey - Drums. With much experience in music accumulated over the past number of years, song writing is almost a reflex. Their sound is sure to kick you in the balls in a very unique way...that is, if there is indeed a way to be uniquely kicked in the balls, they have found it, but you can be the judge of how hard your balls get kicked. If you don't have balls...you're sure to feel it anyways. We Appreciate every fan we have, and we love to have fun and put on a great show! :D"

We have all played in bands with each other for a long time, Oakley,Scott and Kensen played under the name Blind Horizon (Formerly Known as Lost Innocence) for about 4 years and after they broke in 2006, Kensen and trevor formed 2for25, A politicly driven punk rock band. After finding that the music wasnt what they were looking for. All of us found each other, and we all hung out all the time and we all knew what each other was about, we respected each other so we decided to start a band that had everything that our other band didnt. We carefully chose our band name and we carefully write our songs, and perfect them to every last note. Our music is high energy and fun! After we got a few songs written we decided to go straight into the studio and record our first ep which over the next few months will turn into an album. Shows will begin soon and a tour to follow! You can
